

Employee of the Month
December 2004

Lynne Roark – Dublin Elementary School

The selection committee respectfully requests that Mrs. Lynne Roark of Dublin Elementary School be named as Employee of the Month for December 2004. Lynne is an office assistant at Dublin Elementary and has been an employee of Pulaski County Public Schools for two (2) years. She has an associate's degree in computer information systems from New River Community College and a bachelor's degree in business from Radford University.

Lynne is an outstanding bookkeeper and secretary. She maintains a well-organized and efficient school office and goes beyond her job responsibilities on a daily basis. Her colleagues say that no matter how busy Lynne is, she will always take the time to help both students and fellow employees. Her nominators say that she is kind to one and all, and that Lynne is an expert in helping everyone solve their technology problems.

Mrs. Roark's contributions to Dublin Elementary School's students, staff and parents reflect great credit on her and the Pulaski County Public Schools.
