

January 2006
Employee of the Month

David Lawson

The selection committee respectfully requests that Mr. David Lawson of Newbern Elementary School be named as Employee of the Month for January 2006. David is the office assistant and bookkeeper at Newbern Elementary and has been an employee of Pulaski County Public Schools for six (6) years. He has an associate's degree in accounting and certification for computer networking from New River Community College.

David is an outstanding bookkeeper and office manager. He maintains a well-organized and efficient school office and goes beyond his job responsibilities on a daily basis. His colleagues say that no matter how busy David is, he will always take the time to help both students and fellow employees. His nominator says that he is kind to one and all, and that students love to stop by the office to talk with "Mr. David".

Mr. Lawson's contributions to Newbern Elementary School's students, staff and parents reflect great credit on himself and the Pulaski County Public Schools.
