

Employee of the Month
April 2006

Wayne Taylor

The selection committee respectfully requests that Wayne Taylor of Critzer Elementary School be named as Employee of the Month for April 2006. Wayne has been an employee of Pulaski County Public Schools for nine (9) years. He started at Dublin Middle School is currently head custodian at Critzer.

Wayne was nominated by several of his friends and colleagues. He is an outstanding custodian who has an exemplary work ethic and outstanding attendance record. His nominators say that Mr. Taylor willingly and consistently performs above and beyond his official job description. They report that Wayne doesn't consider any task outside his responsibilities. He is careful to maintain a clean and safe work environment, and he is just as careful to help students tie shoes or open milk cartons. There is obvious mutual respect between him and the children.

Mr. Taylor is always available to assist teachers and staff with custodial issues, but his nominators say that this isn't the most noticeable thing about him. The nominators continue that Wayne's quiet, kind and caring attitude is extended to both students and staff. They conclude by saying: "We consider ourselves very fortunate to have this special person as part of our Critzer family."

Mr. Taylor's contributions to Critzer Elementary School's students, staff and parents reflect great credit on himself and the Pulaski County Public Schools.
