

Employee of the Month
December 2007

Yvonne Quesenberry – Human Resources

The selection committee respectfully requests that Mrs. Yvonne Quesenberry of the Human Resources Department of Pulaski Public County Public Schools be named as Employee of the Month for December 2007. Yvonne is the benefits manager and an office assistant in our central office. She was a benefits and training coordinator in private industry before joining our Pulaski County Public Schools' team. Mrs. Quesenberry has been an employee of Pulaski County Public Schools for six (6) years. She has an associate's degree in computer information systems from New River Community College with advanced classes in Microsoft Office.

Yvonne is an outstanding office assistant and manager. She maintains a well-organized and efficient office and goes beyond her job responsibilities on a daily basis. Her colleagues say that no matter how busy Yvonne is, she will always take the time to help both current and former employees. Her nominators say that she is kind and caring to one and all, and that Yvonne always has a smile for her colleagues and clients.

Mrs. Quesenberry consistently demonstrates outstanding support for the Human Resource Department and represents Pulaski County Public Schools with quality. Her contributions to the entire community reflect great credit on herself and Pulaski County Public Schools.
