

Employee of the Month
November 2007

Paul Manning – Technology Department

The selection committee respectfully requests that Paul Manning of the Technology Department of Pulaski County Public Schools be named as Employee of the Month for November 2007. Paul has been an employee of Pulaski County Public Schools for four (4) years. As a dedicated member of the technology team, Paul is currently one of our outstanding technicians. Mr. Manning attended New River Community College and Washington County Skill Center, and is currently working toward certification as an A Plus Computer Technician.

Mr. Manning was nominated by several of his colleagues from Pulaski Middle School. They report that Paul is always kind and patient and that he is incredibly responsive, especially during Standards of Learning testing. He is extremely competent and his quiet humor has a calming effect on both students and teachers.

Paul is a team player who works well with others. He is a positive representative of the Technology Department and Pulaski County Public Schools. His strong work ethic and dedication are stellar examples of the quality of employees that we have in Pulaski County Public Schools.

Paul's contributions to Pulaski County Public School's students, staff and parents reflect great credit on him and the Pulaski County Public Schools.
