

Employee of the Year
2006-2007

Belva Dalton – Snowville Elementary

The selection committee respectfully requests that Belva Dalton of Snowville Elementary School be named Employee of the Year for 2006-2007. Belva has forty-one (41) years of continuous service in Pulaski County Public Schools. She began her career as a food service worker in 1966 and became Food Service Manager for Snowville Elementary in 1979. As a dedicated member of the School Nutrition Program team, Belva has worked faithfully in her job and is a model employee.

Not only does Mrs. Dalton do an outstanding job of managing the cafeteria at Snowville, she also participates in numerous special activities for the students, staff and community. Mrs. Dalton always greets each student by name and is welcoming to all visitors.

Mrs. Dalton is a certified member both the Virginia and the National School Nutrition Associations. She is also a member of the Silver Hat Society of the School Nutrition Association of Virginia.

Belva plans to retire at the end of this year, and she will be truly missed by her students, friends and colleagues. Her career has brought great credit to herself and Pulaski County Public Schools.
