

Employee of the Month
January 2008

Carmen Price – Newbern & Snowville Elementary

The selection committee respectfully requests that Mrs. Carmen Price be named Employee of the Month for January 2008. Carmen has been an employee of Pulaski County Public Schools for four (4) years. She was a substitute and a para-educator at Snowville Elementary School, and is currently the para-educator in the libraries at Newbern and Snowville.

Mrs. Price displays both dedication and competence in handling any task she is given. She has a positive attitude and an excellent work ethic.

Her nominators say that Carmen's kind and caring spirit prompted the nomination for Employee of the Month. She routinely goes above and beyond the scope of her job. Mrs. Price's interactions with students are always positive and respectful. She maintains an atmosphere in the libraries that enhances learning and encourages both students and colleagues to use all the available media resources.

Mrs. Price's contributions to Newbern and Snowville Elementary Schools' students, staff and parents reflect great credit on her and we commend her for her superior service.
