

Employee of the Month
January 2010

Myra Redding - Pulaski Middle School

The selection committee is proud to announce that Mrs. Myra Redding, paraprofessional at Pulaski Middle School, has been named Employee of the Month for January 2010. Mrs. Redding graduated from North Carolina State University and has been employed by Pulaski County Public Schools as a paraprofessional at Pulaski Middle School for five and one-half (5 ½) years.

Mrs. Redding is said to “consistently go above and beyond” the requirements of her position as a paraprofessional. She is “highly respected by the students she patiently teaches and guides.”

Mrs. Redding’s nomination was closed with the following statement by the teachers who chose her as a candidate for Employee of the Month: “All of her interactions embody the spirit of a true educator.”
