

Employee of the Year
2010-2011

Carrie Taylor - Critzer Elementary School

The selection committee respectfully requests that Ms. Carrie Taylor be named Teacher of the Year for 2011.

Ms. Carrie Taylor, para-professional at Critzer Elementary School, has helped students improve in all subject areas. She pushes students to work harder and will not accept less than their best. She is always available to teachers to offer a hand and even assists with bus duty on a daily basis with the primary students. She can often be heard humming or singing as she goes about her day. Ms. Taylor is a wonderful role model for the students she works with
