

Teacher of the Month
October 2004

Rhodora Compton – Dublin Elementary School

The selection committee is pleased to recommend Mrs. Rhodora Compton as Teacher of the Month for October 2004. Mrs. Compton currently teaches kindergarten at Dublin Elementary School.

Mrs. Compton is a graduate of Pulaski County High School, New River Community College, and Radford University with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Early Childhood Education. She began her career in education as an aide for special education students and, after earning her Bachelor's degree, she has taught Kindergarten and has worked with hearing impaired students in Pulaski County for the past seven (7) years.

Rhodora is recognized for creating an all inclusive atmosphere for her students, and her knowledge of sign language has allowed students of differing abilities to be able to communicate well with each other. She consistently goes above and beyond in her commitment to students and as such brings great credit to herself and the Pulaski County Public Schools.
