

Teacher of the Month
December 2006

Roger C. White – Pulaski County High School

The selection committee respectfully requests that Mr. Roger C. White, automotive service technology teacher at Pulaski County High School, be named as Teacher of the Month for December 2006. Roger is a graduate of Dublin High School, New River Community College and Nashville Auto Diesel College. He holds a Technical Professional Teaching License and has taught at PCHS for eleven (11) years.

Mr. White has distinguished himself as a professional with a special ability to make learning fun. He not only teaches his assigned classes, but also extends his teaching day through coaching, mentoring, and advising students in the Skills USA club.

Mr. White was nominated by several of his current and former students. They each mention that he is the kind of teacher who always provides a safe environment both in the shop and in the classroom. One nominator recalls that Mr. White encouraged students to show support for our troops in Iraq, and another says that he always plans lessons to keep each student actively engaged. Perhaps the best statement about why Roger should be recognized as Teacher of the Month was written by a former student. She said: "I always thought that Mr. White liked each of us and cared what happened to us. Since I have been out of school, I now know that what I thought is really the truth—he cares about kids and wants them to be happy and successful!"

Mr. Roger White's contributions to Pulaski County High School students, staff and parents reflect great credit on himself and the Pulaski County Public Schools.
