

Teacher of the Month
February 2007

Kimberly Duncan – Riverlawn Elementary School

The selection committee is proud to recommend that Mrs. Kimberly Duncan from Riverlawn Elementary School, be named as Teacher of the Month for February 2007. Kim is a graduate of Radford University. She has been an employee of Pulaski County Public Schools for twelve (12) years. Kim began her career as a Title I Home/School Coordinator and has taught fourth grade at Riverlawn for eleven (11) years.

Kim has distinguished herself as a skilled teacher who is highly respected by her students and colleagues.

She is a reflective practitioner who is constantly striving to improve her planning and instruction. Her principal, John Bowler, captured the spirit of Mrs. Duncan when he said: "Kim is a quality teacher who is an asset builder for her students and peers."

Mrs. Duncan accepts extra duties with grace and is a cheerful, contributing member of the school and district learning communities. She is the fourth grade team leader, a clinical faculty lead teacher, a member of Riverlawn's Instructional Support Team, and has been the teacher liaison to the Parent Teacher Organization.

Mrs. Duncan's dedication and passion combined with her talents and skills offer huge contributions to Riverlawn Elementary School's students, staff and parents. These characteristics reflect great credit on her and the Pulaski County Public Schools.
