

Teacher of the Month
January 2007

Susan Saul – Critzer Elementary School

The selection committee is proud to recommend that Mrs. Susan Saul, fourth grade teacher at Critzer Elementary School, be named as Teacher of the Month for January 2007. Susan is a graduate of Radford University. She has been an employee of Pulaski County Public Schools for thirty-four (34) years. Before coming to Critzer Elementary, Mrs. Saul taught in Alleghany County.

Susan has distinguished herself as a dedicated teacher who finds ways of bringing joy and enthusiasm to each daily activity. Mrs. Saul strives to engage each student in learning by making every lesson an adventure. Although Susan is quiet and unassuming by nature, she brings excitement to her classroom by sharing her true love of learning.

Mrs. Saul accepts extra duties with grace and is a cheerful, contributing member of the Critzer Elementary community. Her colleagues report that Susan routinely offers words of encouragement, and is a tireless mentor for new employees.

Mrs. Saul's dedication and passion combined with her talents and experience offer huge contributions to Critzer Elementary School's students, staff and parents reflect. These characteristics reflect great credit on her and the Pulaski County Public Schools.
