

Teacher of the Month
April 2008

Jane Honeycutt – Dublin Middle School

The selection committee is proud to recommend that Mrs. Jane Honeycutt, eighth grade mathematics teacher at Dublin Middle School (DMS), be named as Teacher of the Month for April 2008. Jane has a business administration degree from Bluefield College and received her teaching certification from Radford University. She has been an employee of Pulaski County Public Schools for seven (7) years.

Jane was nominated by one of her colleagues at DMS. The nominator reports that Jane is an outstanding professional who is an exemplary teacher. She has all the strategies and techniques required to be a master of her craft. However, and more importantly, she loves her profession and the students and it shows! Mrs. Honeycutt worked for several months to develop a school wide SOL math remediation program. She put in countless hours developing the curriculum and activities without a single complaint and with no compensation other than personal and professional satisfaction! Jane also spearheaded efforts to encourage community support by making laminated flyers to post in stores and shops.

Mrs. Honeycutt's dedication combined with her talents and experience offer huge contributions to Dublin Middle School's students, staff and parents. These characteristics reflect great credit on her and the Pulaski County Public Schools.
