

Teacher of the Month
March 2008

Marva Hickman – Pulaski Middle School

The selection committee respectfully requests that Mrs. Marva C. Hickman of Pulaski Middle School be named as Teacher of the Month for March 2008. Marva is a life-long resident of Pulaski County. She is a graduate of Radford University with a B.S. and M.S. in music education. Marva is the vocal music instructor at Pulaski Middle School and has led the fine arts department there for thirty-five (35) years.

Mrs. Hickman was nominated by several of her colleagues and friends. Many of them commented on her significant service to the students of Pulaski Middle School through her superior knowledge of music and her genuine love for choral activities. Students of all abilities have been successful in her program. Not only does Mrs. Hickman teach quality lessons and activities for her middle school students, she is also the resident choir director at Randolph United Methodist Church.

Mrs. Hickman routinely brings positive recognition to herself and Pulaski County as her students always compete favorably in regional and state competitions. A talented pianist and soloist herself, Marva is an ideal role model for her students.

Marva's dedication and passion combined with her talents offer huge contributions to Pulaski Middle School's students, staff and parents. These characteristics reflect great credit on her and the Pulaski County Public Schools.
