

Teacher of the Month
November 2008

Richard C. Lewis – Dublin Middle School

The selection committee respectfully requests that Richard C. Lewis from Dublin Middle School be named as Teacher of the Month for November 2008. Richard is a graduate of Radford University with degree in political science. An employee of Pulaski County Public Schools for thirty-five (35) years, Richard currently teaches and coaches at Dublin Middle School.

Richard was nominated by the Eighth (8th) grade faculty at Dublin Middle School for humbly and tirelessly devoting his life to the young people of Pulaski County. Mr. Lewis encourages his students to reach not only athletic excellence, but also a high level of personal and academic success. To his colleagues, Richard is a friend, mentor, and supporter. Over the years, he has been responsible for helping numerous student teachers make the difficult transformation into the teaching profession. His personal integrity and high expectations are an inspiration to everyone at Dublin Middle School.

The contributions of Richard Lewis to Dublin Middle School's students, staff and parents reflect great credit on himself and the Pulaski County Public Schools.
