

Teacher of the Month
April 2009

Angela Clevinger – Riverlawn Elementary School

The selection committee respectfully requests that Ms. Angela Clevinger be named Teacher of the Month for April 2009. Ms. Clevinger began her employment as a teacher at Riverlawn Elementary School. She currently is a Kindergarten teacher at Pulaski Elementary School, with eleven (11) years of dedicated service to Pulaski County Public Schools. Ms. Clevinger is a graduate of Radford University with a Bachelors Degree in Elementary Education. She is currently pursuing a Masters Degree in Reading.

Ms. Clevinger is known throughout her school as an advocate for students and teachers. She has been a wonderful mentor to others, and a caring teacher to her students. Throughout her career, Angela has been focused on incorporating new and innovative classroom strategies and techniques designed to reach each child.

Ms. Clevinger serves as secretary for the Pulaski County Education Association and for the Virginia Education Association's local district. Her advocacy for students and teachers, along with her effectiveness in the classroom, are assets that she willingly uses to serve Pulaski County Public Schools.
