

Teacher of the Month
February 2009

Greg Hawks – Pulaski County High School

The selection committee is proud to announce that Mr. Greg Hawks, video production instructor at the Pulaski County Career and Technical Center, has been named Teacher of the Month for February 2009. Greg is a graduate of Radford University. He has been an employee of Pulaski County Public Schools for one (1) year.

In a very short period of time, Greg has distinguished himself as someone who has had a positive impact on the perception of our school and students. Daily, his classes highlight school and community activities that bring positive attention. Mr. Hawks has also partnered with the Pulaski County Chamber of Commerce and the Pulaski County Partners Coalition to produce video productions that highlight the importance of prevention and intervention in the school and community. He is known for his patience and his support for the programs and initiatives of his colleagues.

Mr. Hawks' dedication and patience combined with his talents offer huge contributions to Pulaski County Career and Technical School students, staff and parents. These characteristics reflect great credit on him and our profession.
