

Teacher of the Month
March 2011

Linda Snow - Pulaski County High School

The selection committee respectfully requests that Ms. Linda Snow be named Teacher of the Month for March 2011. Ms. Snow was nominated by a colleague due to her support for and willingness to share innovative teaching strategies with her colleagues at Pulaski County High School. In addition, she is a caring teacher, volunteering to serve as a homebound instructor for students in need. Finally, as someone who avoids recognition and the spotlight, it is especially gratifying for her colleagues to nominate Ms. Snow for long overdue recognition.

Ms. Snow was declared by her nominator to be the “glue” that keeps her department together. Pulaski County Public Schools is well represented by Ms. Snow.
