

Kathy Roseberry Named VCLD
Outstanding Teacher of the Year
(2002)

The Virginia Council for Learning Disabilities (VCLD) honored Dublin Middle School's Kathy Roseberry as the 2002 Outstanding Teacher of the Year. Joan Dowdy, VCLD Awards & Honor Chair presented Kathy with the award at the Spring Regional Conference on March 9th.

Kathy Roseberry was selected from teachers across the Commonwealth as the recipient. She was chosen after careful review of her credentials and recommendations from her colleagues.

With twenty-seven years of teaching experience in both elementary and middle school education Kathy has become a leader in the field. It is easy to see why Kathy was chosen to be the recipient of this award. She has been a coach, a Special Olympic volunteer, a homebound teacher, an extended school year program teacher as well as a child advocate. For the past ten years Kathy has piloted "Collaborative Teaching" in the middle school and served as a mentor for new special educators.

Pulaski County Public Schools is proud to have Kathy guiding and mentoring our children. She is nonetheless an asset to our system. Please join us in honoring the Virginia Council for Learning Disabilities 2002 Outstanding Teacher of the Year.
