

PCEA Gives Whole Village Award
Article By: Jane Graham, Southwest Times
Tuesday April 29, 2003

The Pulaski County Education Association has given Tracie Bruce, a teacher at Claremont Elementary School its Whole Village Award for April. Jan Booker presented the award to Bruce. Bruce was honored for her work in contacting people to support celebrating the Reading is Fundamental program. She organized volunteers to sit on the bench in the hallway and read as role models to the kids. She also kept track of RIF materials and organized and ice cream party for the students to celebrate RIF.